

Section 4 Notetaking Study Guide

Question to Think About As you read Section 4 in your textbook and take notes, keep this question in mind: How did problems with France intensify the split between the Federalists and Republicans?

► Use this chart to record key information from the section. Some information has been filled in to get you started.

The Presidency of John Adams
Troubles with France
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• France was angry that the United States remained _____ in the war between France and Britain. The French also felt that Jay's Treaty favored Britain.• France _____ an American diplomat and continued to seize _____.• XYZ Affair<ul style="list-style-type: none">• French officials demanded a _____ from three American _____.• Many Americans, especially _____, were outraged.• American anger over the XYZ Affair led to an _____. Adams increased the size of the _____ and established a _____.• In 1800, France and the United States signed a treaty. France agreed to _____, and the United States _____.• The treaty angered many Federalists, which _____ President Adams's political power.
The Alien and Sedition Acts
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Reasons Federalists opposed European immigration<ul style="list-style-type: none">• _____• _____• The Alien Act increased the time it took for an alien to _____. It also allowed the President to jail or _____ an alien he considered dangerous.• The Sedition Act made it a crime to _____ about the government. This was a limit on _____.
States' Rights
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The legislatures of Virginia and _____ passed resolutions stating that the Alien and Sedition acts were unconstitutional and that states had the right to _____.• The long-term effect was to establish the principles of states' rights and _____, or the idea that states have the power to deprive a federal law of legal force.

Refer to this page to answer the Chapter 8 Focus Question on page 135.